

Story Dance Theatre Community Workshop

Sunday, May 19, 2013

3pm-5pm

Workshop Leader: Nancy Gayle Judson

Big Anthony and the Pasta Pot (a Strega Nona story) by Tomie dePaola will be the text. You create how the story is told using your choice of improvisational acting, movement or music.

This community workshop is designed to incorporate the creative efforts of all playful participants, ages 6 to 96.

Actor John Grassilli will read the Strega Nona story at the start of the workshop.

Admission: $5 ($2 AotL members)

To plan for materials, advance registration to rsvp@artsonthelake.org or 845 228-2685 is needed.

Those who wish to stay for a family-style post-workshop Pasta Potluck Dinner should email rsvp@artsonthelake.org to specify which dish of salad, pasta, dessert or cash (for incidentals) they would like to contribute.

This Workshop is made possible, in part, by public funds from Putnam County. This grant program is managed and monitored by the Putnam Arts Council.

Costumes for the workshop have been donated by The Putnam Humane Society Thrift Shop.
