

Serious Jazz Sundays Series

Hear players who have played and recorded with many of the world's finest musicians, from Harry James and Ray Charles to Joe Cocker, Lou Rawls, Eubie Blake, and Gregory Hines.

---

Doug Munro – Sunday, March 5, at 3:00 pm

Virtuoso guitarist Doug Munro starts the spring season of Serious Jazz Sundays at Arts on the Lake, with a program devoted to the music of legendary Django Reinhardt. He is accompanied by Ted Gottsegen.

---

Slide Attack Quintet – Sunday, April 2, at 3:00 pm

Led by Trombonists Howard Levy and Alan Goidel, Slide Attack is a modern incarnation of the group formerly led by the great J.J. Johnson and Kai Winding. With fresh arrangements by some of the greatest jazz composers, they cover works from the Swing Era to Hard Bop and beyond.

---

Louise Baranger – Sunday, May 7, at 3:00 pm

Trumpet player Baranger studied with the legendary William Vacchiano of the New York Philharmonic. She has played at major Jazz Festivals, numerous international venues and with numerous well known musicians including Harry James, Uan Rasey, Joe Cocker, Frank Sinatra Jr., and Bobby Vinton.

---

Tickets:

General Admission: $15.00

Members: $12.00

For info and tickets:

www.artsonthelake.org

640 Route 52
Kent Lakes, NY 10512
(845) 228-2685